

Zaupa Diego

Born in Vicenza on July 1968.

After his studies, he was only 16 years old when he started to work by the company "Anzio & Apolloni" as responsible for the items closing (necklaces, bracelets, hearings closing...).

On 1988 he started a three-years course for "setter goldsmith" and, at the end of this course, he was assumed as wax modeller in the famous company "Chimento".

1995: at the age of 27 years he has opened a design studio jewelry devoting himself entirely to the study and production of models, both for the industry as silverware jewelery for that trend, working with famous names including Pianegonda, World Gem.

He also collaborated with a major Spanish company, the "As & As", for which he has made pieces for fashion shows. Meanwhile he was attending numerous seminars modeling in wax and metal from renowned professionals.

Since 1998 he has established an ongoing working relationship with the School of Arts and Crafts, where he teaches in various courses. In 2007 he decided to open, together with Massimo Speranza, with whom he was already collaborating for many years, the "Nuovo Studio Creativo Associato Zaupa / Speranza".
